SHIPPING NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

Voyagers Get Convention News Through 'Sun and New York Herald.

the chart to-day-thirteen bound for this port and thirteen for European destinations-are crowded to capacity. This erowded condition is partly accounted for by the great shortage in ships and partly by conditions in Europe that are forcing people who can pay the price to seek a better living here. This is il-lustrated by the exodus of Spanish emigrants from Barcelona, who are tempted here by high wages on Western farms or the prospect of acquiring farms themselves.

Eight vessels flying the tri-color of Prance are shown, including the new Pabre liner Providence (C-25), bound on her first eastward trip to the Mediterthe French liners Lafayette (H-17), bound for Havre, and the Ro-chambeau (Q-14), just out of Havre; La Lorraine (D-10), approaching Sandy Hook, and La Touraine (L-12), in mid-
